

Mary H. Mossman was well known in the Divine Healing Movement. This is an excerpt from John Alexander Dowie's Leaves of Healing newsletter describing a visit to Ocean Grove and a special visit of the home of Mary Mossman. This is a report by Dowie published in the September 21, 1894 edition.

We spent Lord's Day week last, 9th at Ocean Grove, N. J. We endeavored to be quiet, and did not advise anyone of our coming or presence, until on that afternoon when we found ourselves in an Experience Meeting in the Jane's Memorial Tabernacle, and being "full" we went off and spoke a few words. Instantly we found that we were among Christian friends, some of whom knew us personally, and others from reading, etc. The Rev. Mr. Meyer of Baltimore, Md., who had cooperated with us in one mission there, and others, immediately gathered around us when the meeting closed, and these old friends introduced us to many new ones.

Among others that venerable spiritual Napoleon, who rules over Ocean Grove, the Rev. Dr. Stokes, instantly required that we should address the last Surf Meeting for the season at 6 o'clock that evening. Of course we obeyed, and spoke to the thousands for a few minutes on the question of Pilate, "What shall I do with Jesus?"

This little talk brought out more friends at the close, and led to an impromptu drawing room meeting two nights later in Faith Cottage, the residence of that gentle saint, Miss Mary Mossman, author of "Steppings in God."
