

Mary H. Mossman was well known to Carrie Judd Montgomery. They traveled in the same circles including divine healing meetings and included many Christian and Missionary Alliance connections. This notice of Mossman's visit to the Bethshan Faith Home in England was published in Montgomery's November 1882 Triumphs of Faith Magazine. The lines below are an excerpt from the personal travel report by Dwight and Ellen Norton.

Dear Miss Mossman and Miss Beach of Faith Cottage, in Ocean Grove, who accompanied us to London, have been adopted into the family at Bethshan, and are likely to find plenty of work to do.
