

Excerpt from "Power To The Faint" by Mary E. Hall
Published in Word and Work Magazine January 1903

This is portion of a much longer testimony. We have only included the portion that relates to Mary Mossman.

July 25 I was carried in an easy chair in the baggage car to M. H. Mossman's Faith Cottage for Healing at Ocean Grove, N. J. and strength was given me to endure the journey. Some friends asked me to walk to the shore with them two blocks distance. While thinking of the seeming impossibility of the effort, these precious words came to me: "All things are possible with God," and again "He giveth power to the faint, and to them that have no might He increaseth strength," also "Be of good courage and I will strengthen thee." I went in obedience. As I went strength came rapidly to me and I came back stronger. All glory to God who giveth the victory!

August 13 in the morning God gave me the word to act my faith in going up stairs alone with Him. I had been suffering severely in my side. I went in obedience with the same promise I have quoted, asking and praising God for victory in this side difficulty. On every stair I said, "Praise the Lord! victory!" and believed! I was not relieved, I knew I had asked believingly and praised the Lord that my side was healed. Just as soon as I said, I believe, Jesus gently touched the part which was misplaced and did it for me, it seemed as if I could hear the snap and catch it gave, and it was all done in the time I was saying, "I am healed of my side trouble."

I have not had a return of this severe pain. My ribs were projected toward the back on this side. How could I praise anybody, only Jesus, blessed Jesus? The following night God said within me, "You are well; get up in the morning and dress yourself." I did so and went to the table. My mother and friends were surprised: they knew the strength must have been by the loving touch of our Heavenly Father. At this time the second curvature of my spine was suddenly removed, the first having been gradually taken away before coming to Ocean Grove.

I am now free from disease, with constantly increasing strength. Able to walk in any direction the Master calls me to work for Him. The faith that brings healing is a simple childish resting in Jesus and upon His word. I have been healed through earnest prayer since my final recovery from fever, also colds.

I have something better than health of body. "My spiritual strength has been renewed and I have clearer views of God and His holy word, through answer to the prayer of faith. "What He has promised He is able to perform," and I trust him for all needed health and strength in the future.
