

WALKING WITH GOD

By Pastor Stockmayer

Walking with God means according to His mind, His Spirit, under His direction and discipline; walking in His light. Where any shadow arises it is important to flee at once deeper into the light, to let everything be judged by the light, everything that is not light and love. Darkness begins where Love declines. Love and Light are inseparable factors. If you forsake only for one moment the domain of pure, evangelical love, (I do not mean the love which seeks its own pleasure in others but the love which approaches others for their sakes, the love that loses its life and therefore finds it) I say when you forsake this love for one moment, God draws back, for God is Love. And communion with God becomes deeper and closer by the fact that love penetrates the whole domain, that one overcomes what there still may be of antipathy by the power of the love of God, Who pities everyone and Who has given His Son for all.
